VOLUME 5, NO. 39.

BRAINERD, MINN., WEDNESDAY, JULY 19, 1905.

PRICE TWO CENTS

Perhaps our Store Is New to You.

If it is and you would acquaint yourself with a thoroughly up to the minute dry goods store come in and ask for some of these bargains.

H. F. MICHAEL Co.

Do Not Be Misguided.

The fact that our store is neat and that we have the new things does not make us high priced. The best is always the cheapest.

Our July clearance sale begins tomorrow and will continue until August 1st. Bargains in every section of our store

August 1st must find our summer goods a very small proportion of our stock. We will carry no goods from one season into another if you appreciate real BARGAINS. Our inventory has shown us where the heavy lines are. Now for the clearance. We have had only one thought in mind when making these prices and that was to make a price that would make the clearance a rapid one. The sale will continue until August 1st but keep the story of the "early bird" in mind as the best will surely go to the ones who come first. Read the "ad" in its entirety and come to the sale to save money.

Has He Called Upon You?

We refer to our representative who has been canvassing the town with our premium pictures. These pictures are not given away, but they are sold to our patrons—who buy $2.00 worth of merchandise—for only 69c. The frames are of 3 ply veneer, are 22x26 inches in size, the pictures are all of good subjects and are worth far more than we ask for them. The class of merchandise we sell and the prices we charge for it will not permit us to give away premiums free, so we offer these pictures at this low price to our patrons. This way you know what your premium cost you; by the other method, generally employed, you do not. Come in during this sale and see them.

JOHN HYDE RESIGNS.

Chief of the Bureau of Statistics Steps Out.

Washington, July 19.—The resignation of John Hyde, statistician and chief of the bureau of statistics of the department of agriculture, was handed to Secretary Wilson Tuesday and promptly accepted. Willett M. Hayes, the assistant secretary of agriculture, has been placed in charge of the bureau temporarily and will continue to act pending the investigation of the cotton scandal and until a competent statistician is found. Mr. Hyde's withdrawing from the department created wide interest.

Secretary Wilson and other officials of the government have stated that Mr. Hyde has not been implicated in any manner in the irregularities that resulted in the dismissal of Edwin S. Holmes, the associate statistician, whom secret service operatives charged with being guilty of giving to brokers advance figures of cotton crop statistics. In his letter to the secretary Mr. Hyde takes notice of the fact that he will be criticised for resigning under fire. He says that an organization, meaning the Cotton Growers' association, is bent upon getting him out of the government service, and his health will not permit him continuing so unequal a struggle.

There is considerable speculation as to the probable successor of Mr. Hyde. One name that has been suggested is B. W. Snow of Chicago, statistician for well known farm journals and once assistant statistician under J. R. Dodge, who was chief of the bureau about twelve years ago.

Le Grand Powers of Minnesota, former labor commissioner of the state and for several years agricultural statistician in the census bureau, is also prominently mentioned as Mr. Hyde's successor.

FALLS THREE THOUSAND FEET.

Daniel Maloney Killed While Operating an Aeroplane.

San Jose, Cal., July 19.—Daniel Maloney, who had made numerous successful ascensions with Professor Montgomery's aeroplane, fell 3,000 feet to his death at Santa Clara Tuesday. Maloney made an ascension from the grounds of Santa Clara college in honor of the League of the Cross cadets, who are holding their annual encampment. About 2,000 persons watched with interest the machine as it shot upward from the college garden attached to a huge balloon. At a height of 4,000 feet Maloney cut loose and began maneuvering the aeroplane. He sailed gracefully about, then essayed a deep dip. Suddenly the machine swerved, hesitated and then turned completely over. It righted itself, sank down a considerable distance and turned over again. Maloney was clinging desperately to his seat and evidently endeavoring to regain his control, but all his efforts were in vain. Again the aeroplane turned in the air, the wings came together, and the man and the machine plunged straight downward, while the horrified spectators gazed helplessly.

A number of cadets carried him to the college hospital. His head was fractured and blood was flowing from his ears and mouth. He expired within a short time. The aeroplane was smashed into fragments.

RECORD BROKEN FOUR TIMES.

Horseless Vehicles Make Fast Time in Mountain Climbing.

Bretton Woods, N. H., July 19.—The record of 24 minutes 30 3/5 seconds, established last year by Harry Harkness of New York, in making the eight-mile climb over the carriage road to the summit of Mount Washington, was broken no less than four times Tuesday. The first of the day's contestants to break last year's record was William H. Hilliard of Boston, who accompanied by Frank Townsend, driving a 40-horsepower gasoline car, reached the summit in 20 minutes, 58 2/5 seconds, the new record.

Stanley T. Kellogg of Springfield, Mass., drove a three-horsepower motorcycle up the steep grade in 20 minutes, 59 1/5 seconds.

Burt Holland of Newton, Mass., in a 15-horsepower steam runabout made the ascent in 22 minutes, 17 1/5 seconds and Oscar Hedstrom of Springfield, on a three-horsepower motorcycle, covered the distance in 22 minutes, 42 seconds.

Don't place too much confidence in appearances. A genius sometimes wears good clothes.

SAYS ZIEGLER WAS INSANE.

Widow Brings Suit to Break Millionaire's Will.

New York, July 19.—Declaring that William Ziegler, the millionaire baking powder manufacturer and backer of arctic expeditions, was insane and incompetent to make a will, his widow, Mrs. E. Matilda Biegler, began suit in the supreme court Tuesday to determine the validity of the will. Mr. Ziegler left an estate of $30,000,000 to his adopted son, William Ziegler, who will be fourteen years old next Friday. At the age of forty the boy is to have complete control of the entire estate.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 19, 1905.

LIEUTENANT PRARY has started again to find the north pole. The lieutenant probably could have found something useful to do.

Nor a day passes without several deaths from drowning being reported. Especially is this true of Sunday when large city crowds go to the lakes. The fool who rocks the boat just for fun is as bad if not worse than the one who "thought it was a deer."

The Russian plenipotentiaries are busy these days telling newspaper correspondents what peace terms Russia will not accept. As a matter of fact all know that she will have to accept such terms as Japan pleases to impose, however galling to Russian pride they may be. Russia's day for bluffing is past—thanks to the little Japs.

EXCESSIVE heat has caused a large number of deaths throughout the large cities of the country the last few days. Excessively hot weather is also reported in England and Europe. On Sunday from only one point in the United States was a maximum temperature of less than 90 reported, and that was San Francisco, where the mercury stood at 58.

The United States senate seems to be in a bad way recently, with Senators

Burton, of Kansas, and Mitchell, of Oregon, convicted of felonies, Senator Dietrich, of Nebraska, under indictment, and Senator Chauncey M. Depew accused of a flagrant breach of trust in the Equitable Life Insurance affair, to say nothing of Senator Smoot Reed and his polygamous connections and several other senators who are known to be mere hirelings of trusts and railroad corporations. Our own honest Minnesota senators truly seem to be in bad company.

HE CHEATED THE GALLOWS

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY DISPATCH.

St. Paul, July 19—Edward Gottschalk, convicted of the murder of Joseph Hartman, his accomplice in the murder of Christian H. Schindeldecker, and sentenced to be hanged August 8, today cheated the gallows by hanging himself in his cell in the county jail by the use of a strip of cloth torn from the bedtick.

His subject will be: "Character and Culture the Basis of our National Safety." He will address the teachers Thursday at 9 a. m. and 10:30 a. m. The public are invited to attend any or all of these addresses.

Yesterday afternoon Michael Keaber was taken before Court Commissioner M. McFadden and examined as to his sanity. He was ordered committed to the asylum at Fergus Falls. This is the third time that he has been in a hospital for the insane, once in Illinois and once before at Fergus Falls in 1892. He has a son living a short distance in the country.

Supt. J. A. Wilson while driving to Gull lake night before last had a rather unpleasant experience. One of the tugs came unfastened and it scared the horses and upset the buggy throwing the genial superintendent out. It took some time to get the horses back again to the buggy, and by this time someone had stolen a quantity of groceries etc., that were in the buggy.

IMPROVING MANCHURIA.

How Japanese Example to the Chinese Proves Very Beneficial.

The Chicago News correspondent with General Nogi's army in Manchuria cables as follows:

"Among other measures for the regeneration of Manchuria adopted by Oyama is the quartering of Japanese soldiers in almost every native house throughout the thousands of square miles of territory now held by the mikado's men. These soldiers set the population an example of personal cleanliness and order that is highly beneficial. The opportunity for personal observation of this new manner of life is already benefiting the Chinese, who are beginning to copy the habits of their guests.

"Hygienic methods have been introduced into the villages, the streets are cleaned regularly, public amusements have been inaugurated, public gardens and parks have been established and those already existing improved. Large numbers of Manchurians have been taken into the service of the postal department, and mails are now regularly distributed. This latter innovation is a landmark in the social development of Manchuria."

A Duty.

Jimson—It's very unpleasant to speak of this, but I feel that it is only a duty to myself to remind you that you owe me $5. Stinson (turning on his heel)—Don't mention it, old fellow. I'm glad you've discharged your duty so well.

DESERT BILL OF FARE

SOURCES FROM WHICH THE INDIAN SUPPLIES HIS LARDER.

Some of the Things Eaten, Especially the Insect and Reptilian Foods, Are Not Only Not Inviting, but Are Not Even Palatable.

About some of the Indian villages of the west are to be seen small patches of maize or a few tiny melon patches, but these cultivated areas are of little account as compared with the number of persons to be fed. These, too, are exceptions rather than the rule, a majority of the towns having no such cultivated fields.

In the various parts of the arid region which shelters so great a portion of our barbarian population is found a tree remarkable for certain properties. The botanical name of this plant is Prosopis juliflora. It is popularly known as the algaroba, or honey mesquite. This tree thrives with little moisture, grows, with thick, bushy top, to a height of twenty to forty feet, affords shelter from the wind and sun, and, best of all in the sight of the hungry natives, it yields abundant crops of fruit known as mesquite beans. The slim green pods hang in clusters from the tips of the boughs, often bending the branches nearly to breaking, so abundant do they grow. The pods, which are six or seven inches long, are pulpy, juicy, fairly palatable and nourishing.

These beans are gathered, dried and stored in the peculiar granaries of the Indians—huge baskets holding several bushels each—and are pulverized when wanted for food in wooden or stone mortars, and the meal thus formed is soaked in water and eaten without further preparation or it is baked into a sort of unleavened bread. It is the principal and favorite food of several tribes.

The screw bean is another food product, less plentiful, but even more highly prized because of its sugary qualities. This fruit is often eaten as plucked from the tree. It ripens the latter part of June or in July, a little later than the mesquite bean.

In some of the mountain sections the Prunus andersonii, or chamish, is found in abundance. The pits of this fruit are pounded in mortars, and the meal is then eaten. There are many varieties of the cactus fruit which are utilized for food, the fruit of the Opuntia tuna or prickly pear being a notable example.

The dead loco weed, the pest of the cattlemen, is a favorite with the Indians, for the yellow pods of the plant when pulverized serve as spice to render some of the otherwise insipid dishes palatable.

The roots of the cancer root are roasted over live coals, and when young, succulent and nourishing are prime favorites with the red epicureans.

Flowers of the yucca and agave are boiled, dried and preserved, to be eaten as occasion requires. The young shoots or crowns of these plants are also roasted and eaten. Seeds of the Artemisia tridentata or wormwood and the Atriplex lentiformis are pulverized and eaten. Pine nuts form a very important item of food with many of the tribes in the wooded section of the country, and acorns furnish other tribes with a large part of their living.

There are other herbs which are utilized by the Indians as food. Indeed, there are few plants which are not capable of being rendered edible in some manner. There are, however, other things besides plants which are made to satisfy the pangs of hunger. In the animal kingdom are a number of varieties of creatures, not classed in the game list of the white man, which minister to the appetites and needs of the red man.

There are in the southwest, particularly in California, bodies of bitter, poisonous waters known as boracic lakes. Owen's lake, twenty miles long, is of this class. It is a veritable Dead sea, and, like the sea of that name and its counterpart, the Great Salt Lake of Utah, its heavy, brackish waters do not support fish or marine life.

At certain seasons of the year the waters of these boracic lakes abound in white grubs known to the Indians of that region as "koochabee." These grubs are the larvae of a two winged fly, the Ephydra californica. So plentiful are these grubs in their season they line the shores of the lake to a depth of several inches, where the waves cast them up from their watery incubator. The Indians at this season of the year camp upon the shores of the lake, gather this peculiar harvest and dry it in the sun. Later the grubs are ground in stone mortars into fine powder, and from this insect meal they bake a bread which is highly prized.

There are a number of other insects—lizards, reptiles and the like—which are used as food by different tribes. The chuckawalla, a lizard somewhat resembling the Gila monster, is a common article of food with Lower California Indians and with some of the tribes north of the line. It may not be the most inviting of foods—some of the insect and reptilian foods are far from palatable—but the Indian is not inclined to quarrel with anything which stops the gnawing beneath his belt, and he evidently believes that "not that which goeth into the mouth defileth the man."—Los Angeles Times.

CHARGED WITH MURDER OF DAHLS

"Shorty" Wesley Passed Through City Today in Charge of Sheriff Bailey

STRONG EVIDENCE AGAINST HIM

He Was in The Vicinity of Blackduck When Murder Was Committed Last Winter

Sheriff Bailey, of Bemidji, passed through the city this afternoon en route home from St. Paul having in custody "Shorty" Wesley, who is charged with the murder of Ole Dahl and his daughter last winter near Blackduck. Wesley was arrested last winter near his old home at Green Bay, Wis., and has been in the county jail of Ramsey county. The case has been taken up again at Bemidji and with the newly elected county officials it is thought that something can be done with this case. Wesley is supposed to be a tough character.

F. S. Clayton and family, Jim Atwater and wife, and Prentiss Atwater returned last Thursday from Clearwater.

Miss Ethel Saunders, who has been teaching the Duck Lake school, returned to her home in Brainerd Saturday.

Among those who attended the ball game and play Saturday were George Frost and family and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gordon, of Helensberg.

Mr. and Mrs. William, Dr. Emeny and Mrs. Crockett and children, of Eldora, Iowa, are spending a few weeks at Ruth Lake, the guests of S. H. Anderson's.

"Carl Johnson The Woodman" was played to a full house Saturday, and for the second time was pronounced a success. After the play the ball boys gave a dance.

The ball game between Emily and Jenkins, was thoroughly enjoyed by a large crowd Saturday. The score stood 2 to 7 in favor of Jenkins. This is the first time the Emily boys have had to own to defeat. Both sides played well and Jenkins earned her victory not only by this game, but by contests in the past. We understand that Emily goes to Jenkins next Saturday to play.

OLD MAN WAS DISORDERLY

Ludwig Kalucha Got Busy and Was Thrown Into Jail Charged with Disorderly Conduct

Ludwig Kalucha was fined $25 yesterday afternoon in police court before Judge Warner, on the charge of being disorderly, and in default of the payment of the fine he was sentenced to twenty days in the county jail. It is claimed that he got into a wrangle with some of his neighbors and among some of the things he did was to pull a gun and fire it into the air for a few minutes. Then he tried to say a whole lot in a minute or two that did not sound just right. He simply ignored the fine of $25 and said he would not pay a cent and would serve time first, although he had the money.

Loss of Sleep Means Loss of Mind.

Inability to Sleep is Nature's Plain Warning of an Exhausted Nervous System.

DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE PILLS

When you overwork any muscle or set of muscles they tire and must have rest. What is true of muscle is doubly true of the brain, as from it emanates all power to work, to act, to think. The brain is full of little cells that during the waking hours are never quiet in their efforts to furnish to every organ the power to do its rest. Rob these little cells of their rest at night—keep them at work all the time, and soon they tire, refuse to act, fail to generate nerve force and the system goes to ruin. Bromides, sedatives, opiates only hasten the end—they do not build up, they tear down. The true remedy, the only cure, lies in Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills, a medicine that revitalizes, reinvigorates, and by properly nourishing these overworked little cells, give them rest and quiet and enables one to sleep naturally and easily again.

Mrs. Fred Wholeben of Glado

Rue, Warren, Pa., Says:

"I was induced to use Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills for excessive nervousness. I was so nervous I could not bear a noise or much talking. I was very forgetful—my mind seemed dull. I was listless and tired all the time. The result of the use of the box I got was remarkable. They toned up the nerves and system generally and I work well again, am strong—my mind is clear and noise and talk no longer bother me. I am much pleased with the pills and can recommend them highly to anyone who feels as I did." 50 cents a box at dealers, or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., N. Y. Portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., on every package.

The Secret of Good Coffee

Even the best housekeepers cannot make a good cup of coffee without good material. Dirty, adulterated and queerly blended coffee such as unscrupulous dealers shovel over their counters won't do. But take the pure, clean, natural flavored LION COFFEE, the leader of all package coffees—the coffee that for over a quarter of a century has been daily welcomed in millions of homes—and you will make a drink fit for a king in this way:

HOW TO MAKE GOOD COFFEE.
Use LION COFFEE, because to get best results you must use the best coffee. Grind your LION COFFEE rather fine. Use "a tablespoonful to each cup, and one extra for the pot." First mix it with a little cold water, enough to make a thick paste, and add white of an egg (if egg is to be used as a settler), then follow one of the following rules:
1st. WITH BOILING WATER. Add boiling water, and let it boil THREE MINUTES ONLY. Add a little cold water and set aside five minutes to settle. Serve promptly.
2d. WITH COLD WATER. Add your cold water to the paste and bring it to a boil. Then set aside, add a little cold water, and in five minutes it's ready to serve.
3 (Don't boil it too long. Don't let it stand more than ten minutes before serving. DON'T use water that has been boiled before.)
TWO WAYS TO SETTLE COFFEE.
1st. With Eggs. Use part of the white of an egg, mixing it with the ground LION COFFEE before boiling.
2d. With Cold Water instead of eggs. After boiling add a dash of cold water, and set aside for eight or ten minutes, then serve through a strainer.

Insist on getting a package of genuine LION COFFEE, prepare it according to this recipe and you will only use LION COFFEE in future. (Sold only in 1 lb. sealed packages.) (Lion-head on every package.) (Save these Lion-heads for valuable premiums.)

LOOKING INTO SITUATION

Labor Commissioner Williams
Passed Through City En
Route to Aitkin County

INVESTIGATE SUBMERGED AREAS

Farmers Said to Be Suffering in That County for Actual Necessities of Life

State Labor Commissioner Williams passed through the city yesterday afternoon en route to Aitkin, having been sent there by Governor Johnson, to investigate the reports that the residents of that county are suffering as a result of the recent floods their lands being largely submerged.

Reports from Aitkin are to the effect that the overflow from the government reservoirs is from eight inches to two feet over a wide area. Farmers have been driven from their homes and forced to take refuge in the hills.

Though the refugees are not in want of food, the situation in that regard is liable to become serious.

The governor refused to sanction a proposition to take money from the poor fund of Aitkin county and employ it upon the roads, so as to furnish work for the homeless. The scheme would be in violation of law.

If necessary, Gov. Johnson will appeal to the state at large for subscriptions. The state employment bureau may be called into service for the same purpose.

In Honor of the Bride-Elect.

Several functions have been given this week and others will be given later in honor of Miss Edna Twining Stickney, who is to be married a week from tonight to Mr. Charles Hoffman. On Monday afternoon Miss Islay McColl entertained the ladies of the bridal party at a well appointed dinner. Last evening Mrs. A. T. Fisher and Mrs. C. L. Burnett entertained about 35 ladies. It was in the form of a handkerchief shower and a pleasant evening was spent. Miss Onolee McCullough gave a 1 o'clock luncheon this afternoon to the ladies of the bridal party.

THE MCCARTHY FUNERAL

Remains of Late David McCarthy Laid to Rest This Morning at Evergreen Cemetery

The remains of the late David McCarthy, who was drowned in the Mississippi river a week ago Sunday, were laid to rest today at Evergreen cemetery. The funeral services were held at St. Francis Catholic church, Rev. Father D. W. Lynch officiating. There was an unusually large attendance at the funeral, showing as it did the popularity of the young man among those who knew him. The floral contributions were many, in fact, it was one of the largest collections seen at a funeral in a long time in this city.

A GREAT WEAPON

Brainerd People Cannot Fail to Appreciate its Value

Only one weapon.
To fight backache.
The weapon that strikes the cause.
Doan's Kidney Pills strikes the root.
Their work in Brainerd proves it.
You read of cures made years ago.
And the cures were lasting cures.
Read the following:

Philip O'Neil, of 516 Norwood St., Brainerd, Minn., says: "Brainerd people have seen in the local papers the testimonial I gave in 1898, recommending Doan's Kidney Pills, and many times I have been called upon to corroborate that statement in personal interviews. My confidence in Doan's Kidney Pills has not been lessened during the past six years. It has shown itself equal to all the claims made for it. I was a sufferer for a long time from backache and pains in the loins. The kidney secretions were too frequent and much discolored. The trouble became worse and worse and nothing helped it until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at H. P. Dunn & Co.'s drug store. I used this remedy faithfully until the annoyance from the kidney secretions ceased and the pains and backache disappeared. The cure then effected has been most gratifying and altogether permanent."

ROOT ARRIVES IN WASHINGTON.

Will Take the Oath as Secretary of State.

Washington, July 19.—Elhu Root arrived here Tuesday night from New York and during the day will take the oath as secretary of state. He was somewhat fatigued as the result of his journey and the intense heat. He said that his coming at this time was to formally take up the reins of office as secretary of state. He will remain in the city, however, but the one day.

DIE FROM THE HEAT

SCORES OF PERSONS PERISH IN THE EASTERN AND NEW ENGLAND STATES.

HUNDREDS ARE PROSTRATED

THOUSANDS OF OTHERS SUFFER
INTENSELY AND DEATH LIST
MAY BE INCREASED.

New York, July 19.—An area of oppressive heat that brings to mind with unpleasant vividness the record breaking summer of 1901, has settled down over the Eastern and New England states, already numbering hundreds among its victims and causing indescribable suffering to thousands in this and other cities. From all points Tuesday night came the story of the hottest day of the summer, attended with frequent prostrations and not a few deaths.

Philadelphia reported a maximum temperature of 98.3, the highest figure officially noted. In this city the weather bureau's high mark was 96, while in Boston where the sun's rays are wont to be tempered by an east wind, a mark of 90 was recorded.

The official thermometers located in exposed places above the street, did not however, indicate the temperature in which the ordinary mortal moved and many street thermometers indicated a temperature of 100 or higher, some reliable instruments registering 104 and 105.

Following is a list of the deaths and prostrations in some of the large cities:

New York, 190 prostrations, 26 deaths; Philadelphia, 50 prostrations, 5 deaths; Baltimore, 5 prostrations; Washington, 6 prostrations; Boston, 4 prostrations, 1 death; Pittsburg, 45 prostrations, 13 deaths; Buffalo, 2 prostrations, 1 death.

The maximum temperatures were: New York, 96; Philadelphia, 98.3; Baltimore, 97.3; Washington, 95; Boston, 94; Pittsburg, 93; Buffalo, 78.

The above figures by no means represent the sum of human suffering for the day, as an endless number of victims, who collapsed at home, in the office or workshop were privately attended.

No Relief Yet in Sight.

And no relief is yet in sight and the roll of fatalities must be necessarily increased by many who having thus far withstood the ordeal are so weakened as to leave them more susceptible of the heat to come.

Tuesday all records for the summer were broken in point of high temperature, but mercifully the humidity was correspondingly less. But for this the total prostrations and deaths must have been double.

In New York the suffering was intense, especially in the crowded tenement districts, where scarcely a breath of air relieved the stifling atmosphere. Thousands who could afford the holiday flocked to the beaches, but even in the consequent crowds women and children fainted and men were overcome, making the trip from home a doubtful experiment, so far as securing any comfort was concerned.

It was a busy day for the hospitals and the ambulances were continuously on the street.

To add to the unavoidable physical suffering, Brooklyn was threatened with a water famine, while the whole city was startled by the prospect of a strike of the ice men. The water supply in Brooklyn was reported as nearing the danger point and the water department took immediate precautions, suspending street sprinkling and warning households to be extremely economical in the use of water.

Manhattan, it was said, has no cause for alarm so far as the water supply was concerned.

It was different with the ice question, though an expected strike did not materialize. A few ice wagon drivers stopped work, but deliveries continued.

HOTTEST DAY OF THE YEAR.

Five Deaths and Thirty-Eight Prostrations at Chicago.

Chicago, July 19.—Tuesday was the hottest day of the year for this city, the mercury registering 95 degrees for two hours in the afternoon. The humidity, which was comparatively low Monday, was higher Tuesday, and the result was a great deal of suffering. A strong wind blew from the southwest all day but it was stifling hot. By 9 o'clock at night the mercury had dropped to 88.

Up to 10 p. m. five deaths and thirty-eight prostrations were reported to the police. Several of the latter cases may prove fatal. The deaths were those of Charles Rossow, a teamster; Peter Stovenski, a mechanic; William Quinn, seventy-five years old, Mrs. William Meyers and Henry Neander, sixty years old.

NO RELIEF FOR SOME DAYS.

Present High Temperatures Will Continue for Awhile.

Washington, July 19.—There will be no material relief from the present high temperatures throughout the country for three or four days, according to the census bureau, as were six prostrations from the heat here, none fatal. The official thermometer recorded 95 degrees.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"POLITE VAUDEVILLE"

It begins to look as though vaudeville had come to stay—at least for the summer season—as the Orpheum Vaudeville company will be the attraction at the Brainerd opera house next Saturday evening with the usual popular price matinee at 3:30 in the afternoon. The program which is a pleasing one will include Leoni and Leoni, the marvelous aerial gymnasts; The Whitesides—singing and dancing duo—introducing many character changes; McNamee—the clay modeler—making faces of well known people out of ordinary clay; Mr. Will Marshall—in illustrated songs with beautifully colored views; Miss Mildred Craver—in a novelty singing and dancing act; Douglas and Douglas, comedy acrobats. A mile of moving pictures by the wonderful Kinetoscope—showing late events—comic situations—exciting scenes. Same prices.

YOU cannot afford to neglect your eyes. Dr. Bruns the eye expert will be at the National Hotel, July 25 and 26. He fits glasses correctly, and relieves headache by removing the eye strain. Consultation and examination is free.

An Artistic Advertisement

The attention of our readers is called to the full page advertisement of H. F. Michael & Co., on the front page of this issue. In this advertisement Mr. Michael offers some very rare bargains to the public, which will, no doubt be quickly taken advantage of, as this enterprising firm always does just as it advertises to do, and the public gets the benefit. But THE DISPATCH desires to call the attention of its readers also, to the artistic appearance of the advertisement, which is wholly the work of Mr. Michael, as he selects every line of type that goes to make up the ads, and his work is pronounced by capable judges as equal to, if not superior, to any ad work in any of the largest dailies of the country. For artistic merit they are surpassed nowhere, and we are pleased to learn from Mr. Michael they are effective beyond his expectations.

BOLD ROBBER BADLY BEATEN.

Captured and Pounded by His Enraged victims.

Omaha, July 19.—A man giving his name as Frank Leonard of Peoria, Ill., Tuesday night held up and robbed five men in a drugstore at Twenty-fourth and Seward streets, taking several hundred dollars in money and jewelry from them. He backed out of the drugstore and the five gave chase. A running fight followed, during which the highwayman fired five shots at his enraged pursuers without effect. They hurled bricks and other missiles at the fleeing man, finally capturing him. A hand to hand fight ensued when they came up to Leonard, in which Frank Bandle, from whom the robber had taken a diamond and some money, was badly beaten on the head with a revolver. Leonard was beaten into unconsciousness and carried back to the drugstore and later taken to jail by the police. He may not recover.
